

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

AIR ACE A SANTA CLAUS—Clarence Chamberlin, hero of flight that carried him into Germany, plays role of Kris Kringle to group of children in New York's East Side.

LIGHTFOOT—Christiane Guy and her twin sister, Marie, are latest Paris dance sensations. We'd only waste space showing Marie, as she looks exactly like Christiane!

BEAUTIFUL VIEW OF LONDON—Here's a really remarkable photograph of English metropolis from the air, showing Tower of London, London Bridge and practically every church spire in the city.

ON A HOLIDAY—John Coolidge, raccoon coat and all, strolls around Washington while home with his parents during Christmas recess at college.

PARIS ALL LIT UP—Electrical waterfall, masterpiece of skill and art, adorns the Bazaar de l'Hotel de Ville in French capital as a Christmas decoration.

CHAMP AGAIN—Young Jake Schacter, son of wizard of same name, regains world's billiard title by defeat of Welker Cochran in New York City.

BEREAVED FATHER LASHES NAVY—John J. McGinley, of Norristown, Pa., father of sailor who perished in submarine S-4, bitterly arraigns naval authorities for failure to rescue crew. He is here shown with newspaper men at Provincetown, Mass.

VO-VO-VO-DE-DO—"Vo-deveel" has claimed another member of the peerage—and a beautiful one—in the person of Lady Furnival, now appearing in England's music halls.

GABRIELE'S SON—Ugo Veniero d'Annunzio, son of famous Italian poet and firebrand, arrives in New York for short business trip through the East.

TANGLED—Here are some of the 150 cyclists trying to make the grade at steep hill during cross-country bike race at Choisy-le-Roi, France.

A RECORD—Hilde Schrader, Germany's ace swimmer, sets new world's mark for 200 meters, breast stroke, in beating classy field of competitors at Magdeburg.

SEEING THE SIGHTS IN BANGKOK—Group of American sailors of our Asiatic Fleet stroll around picturesque streets of Siamese capital. This is Uncle Sam's first visit to that country, five destroyers putting into port.